

Introduction:

Kenya is committed to peace. We believe that talking and following the law is the best way to solve problems. Kenya wants to make sure that weapons are used safely and not for bad things.

Topic 1: The Ukraine-Russia War

The war between Ukraine and Russia is causing problems. Kenya, like other African countries, depends on wheat from Ukraine and Russia. Because of the war, it is harder to get the wheat, and food prices are rising. People are hungry. (unav.edu)

Kenya's Position:

Kenya believes that all countries should be free and safe. We want the war to end. We want Ukraine and Russia to talk and find a peaceful way to solve the problem. We also want to make sure that people who are affected by the war get food and help.

1. Proposed Solutions:
2. Talk to Ukraine and Russia to start peace talks.
3. Help the people affected by the war by sending food and aid.

Work with other countries to stop wars in the future.

Topic 2: Global Arms Usage Regulations

Background

Weapons can be good or bad. Kenya wants to make sure weapons are used safely. We support the Arms Trade Treaty, which helps countries make rules so weapons are not used to hurt people or start wars. (legal.un.org)

Kenya's Position:

Kenya believes that all countries should follow the Arms Trade Treaty to stop bad use of weapons. It is important to have rules that protect people and stop wars.

Proposed Solutions:

1. Make sure all countries follow the Arms Trade Treaty.
2. Share information with other countries to stop illegal weapon trading.
3. Help countries make strong rules to keep weapons under control.

Conclusion

Kenya wants to work with other countries to make the world safe. We want to solve problems by talking and following the law. We hope to work together with other countries to find solutions to these problems
